ROOSEVELT'S INTERFERENCE IS RESENTED

Bay State's Big Eight Will Vote as They Please.

TAFT WILL DEMAND RECOUNT

President's Manager Not Satisfied With Result on Delegates-at-Large. Colonel Roosevelt Declares That He Meant Every Word of Message to Delegates Instructing Them to Vote For His Rival, and Will Use Every Endeavor to See They Obey.

Boston, May 2.—Despite the orders issued from Oyster Bay that they vote for President Taft in the Chicago convention because the real will of the people as expressed in the preferential vote was that Taft delegates be chosen, the eight Roosevelt delegates-at-large chosen at the primary are going to stand pat and vote as they please. They are not going to act jointly although at first they decided to stand together by their pledge for Roosevelt. Later, when they heard of the colonel's demand that they support Taft, they tore up the agreement and each will go on his own hook.

A general recount of the votes will be asked by General Champlin on the ground that the real choice of the people is not expressed in the returns from the election officers, and that a second inspection of the ballots is necessary to determine the extent of the Seiberlich blunder. Returns from the primary dribbled in all during the day, and are complete with the exception of the vote in three small towns. They show Taft led Roosevelt by 3,973, while Clark led Wilson by 19,921 in the preferential vote of the people for their selections for the Republican and Democratic nominations for the presidency. The vote for Taft was 87,117; for Roosevelt, 82,144; for Clark, 23,491; for Wilson, 14,470. Eight delegates-at-large pledged to Roosevelt were chosen by about 8,300 plurality over the Taft slate.

Delegates Declare Themselves. There is a big row on over the question of whether the eight delegates-at-large are morally if not legally bound to support Taft in the convention, and there is talk of their seats being contested at Chicago. Five of the eight delegates-at-large chosen as pledged to Roosevelt said that they would not accept the release from their pledge given by the colonel, and proposed to vote for him in the convention regardless of his request to follow the preferential choice of Taft.

Those who made this statement were Charles S. Baxter, James P. Magenis, George W. Coleman, Arthur L. Nason and Alvin G. Weeks. Octave LaRiviere, another delegate, said he might do what the colonel requested, and Frederick Fosdick said that he was willing to vote for Taft, but would not make his decision at this time. Professor Albert B. Hart is in the west and could not be reached. Several of the delegates expressed their displeasure at the "butting in" on the part of the colonel.

MAKES IT EMPHATIC

Colonel Roosevelt Insists He Doesn't Want Bay State Votes.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., May 2.—Colonel Roosevelt has declared that his eight Massachusetts delegates-at-large were in open rebellion against his bull of excommunication and were all agreed that they'd stick.

"What are you going to do about it?" colonel.

"I have nothing to say," he replied. "except that I mean every word that I said and shall do everything possible to see that my request is heeded."

Controlled by Roosevelt.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 2.—The Republican state convention was dominated by delegates favoring Colonel Roosevelt, and it adopted a progressive platform which lauded Roosevelt and omitted mention of President Taft or the work of his administration.

TEXAS HIT BY SHELL

Latest Version Says Turkish Forts Fired on Vessel.

Smyrna, May 2.—It is now alleged that the steamer Texas, which sunk with considerable loss of life in the Dardanelles, was struck by a shell instead of having hit a submerged mine, as at first reported. This shell, it is claimed, was fired from one of the Turkish forts after the Texas had ignored two blank shots which had been fired as a warning. The Texas had deviated from the proper channel.

THE TITANIC DEAD BODIES ARRIVE HOME

Forty Unidentified Bodies to Be Buried at Once.

MEMORIAL SERVICE PLANNED

People of Halifax Will Tomorrow Honor Memories of Those Who Went Down in Wreck—Bodies Will Be Photographed Before Being Consigned to Mother Earth—Astor Funeral Will Take Place at Rhinebeck-on-Hudson Saturday.

Halifax, N. S., May 2.—All of the bodies landed by the Mackay-Bennett have not yet been embalmed, but the work has progressed so far that 27 have been shipped to their homes. It is expected that today it will be possible to send as many more, and that by tomorrow the number thus disposed of will reach nearly 100. It was decided that about 40 of the unidentified dead must be buried without further delay, owing to the advanced stage of decomposition, and a funeral was decided on for tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. In the forenoon a memorial service will be held in Brunswick Street church, one of the largest in the city. It will be conducted by the Evangelical Alliance, and the band of the Royal Celebration

Human Skeletons and a Bar Lately Unearthed In Pompeii

Photos by American Press Association.

RECENT excavations in Pompeii have uncovered a considerable part of "the Street of Abundance," which is described as a sort of Fifth avenue of the ancient city. Among the houses which have been explored is the palace of Obellius Firmus, apparently one of the richest of the Pompeians. Before one of the gates, as shown in the first photograph, the excavators found the bodies of the master of the house, his wife, two children and two slaves overwhelmed by the ashes of the great eruption. In the same street was a fashionable drinking saloon, with the amphora, or wine jars, perfectly preserved by their thick covering of ashes. The body of a man supposed to have been the vintner, or the ancient equivalent of a bartender, was found near the stone bar, which appears in the second photograph. In other houses frescoes of vivid coloring were discovered, depicting human figures of life size and great beauty. The Street of Abundance was evidently largely a business street. It had shops or booths with marble counters over which were sold jewels and art objects, toilet articles, perfumes, etc. There were even "beauty parlors," and in one of them the excavators found recipes for complexion cream and rouge.

Explosion Results In Death To Five Men

Hundred Have Miraculous Escape on Cleveland Dock.

Cleveland, O., May 2.—Five men were burned to death when six successive explosions of a total of 100,000 gallons of gasoline and naphtha in the compartments of the Standard Oil company barge No. 88, lying in a slip south of the Jefferson street bridge, covered everything in the vicinity with the blazing fluid.

Five men were slightly burned and fully 100 working in the yard of the Great Lakes Towing company's repair plant, where the five men killed were employed, together with others working for the company across the slip had escaped from fiery death approaching the miraculous.

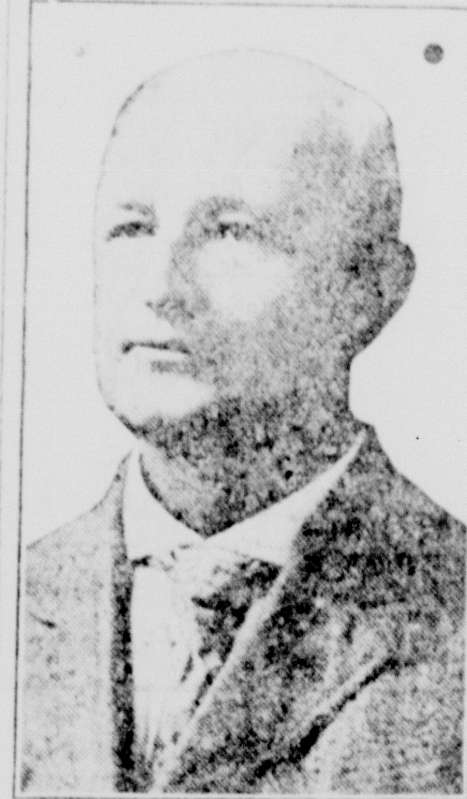

The explosion transformed the wharves and the river itself into a veritable roaring furnace. The fire raged for three hours put out the blaze after a three-hour fight.

Underwood Carries Georgia.

Atlanta, May 2.—Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama, Democratic floor leader in the national house, has carried Georgia over Governor Wilson of New Jersey by a substantial majority, and will be supported by a solid Georgia delegation at the Baltimore convention. Returns from the presidential preference primary indicates that Underwood's majority over Wilson will be at least 5,000.

TAXATION QUESTION NEARS A VOTE

Friends of Uniform Rule Plan Seem to Be In Majority.

Columbus, O., May 2.—Indications are that the constitutional convention today will adopt the report of the minority members of the taxation committee, and whip it into shape probably for final passage or defeat today. The minority report on the Worthington proposal provides for the uniform rule of taxation with provisions for graduated income, inheritance and mineral production tax and a limitation of the tax rate.

A poll made by the uniform rule men showed 73 delegates in favor of substitution of the minority report for the majority and 35 for the classification or majority Worthington proposal. Uniform rule men confidently claimed victory by two to one and rejection of the Worthington proposal to give counties the option of taking classification or the uniform rule. Rural delegates are almost solid for the uniform rule and they will be joined by part of the labor group and others.

At the night session Delegate Doty, who is said to favor classification to promote the single tax theory, consumed all the time and prevented a vote. He offered to compromise with the uniform rule men to kill both propositions, but the offer was rejected with little ado.

Delegate Takes Vows.

Columbus, O., May 2.—The constitutional convention paused in its discussion of official matters long enough to adopt resolutions of congratulation for one of its members who stily and without announcement, slipped away and was married. The new benedict among the delegates is James M. Fluke of Ashland county. He was married in Mansfield to Miss Esther J. Giffin, a native of St. Marys, Ont., Canada. Mr. Fluke was compelled to make a speech to the convention.

WOULD CHANGE RULES

Old Question Bobs Up In Methodist Episcopal Conference.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 2.—Already interest is keen among the delegates who assembled to attend the opening here of the quadrennial general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church as to what action shall be taken on a proposal to change the present disciplinary rules governing amusements.

The rules prohibit dancing, games of chance, theatergoing, circuses and horse racing as being "a tendency toward worldliness." The proposition as to its retention or rejection has been referred to a committee.

LODGE LACKS FAITH IN JAPS

Keeps Up Agitation Over Magdalena Bay Incident.

AMBASSADOR ENTERS DENIAL

Reply to Senatorial Query Brings Forth Statement That Japan Has Never Tried to Acquire Concessions on Western Coast of Mexico—President Sends Message to Senate, but Massachusetts Member Continues to Talk Monroe Doctrine.

Washington, May 2.—In the message on the Magdalena bay controversy which President Taft sent to the senate there is nothing calculated to disturb our friendly relations with Japan. In fact, the announcement is made that the Japanese government, through its ambassador at Washington, has communicated to the state department a categorical denial of the rumored purchase of land on Magdalena bay by the Japanese government or by a Japanese company. The Japanese government declared further that it had never directly or indirectly attempted or contemplated the acquisition of any land on Magdalena bay for any purpose.

The reading of the message in the senate stirred up a spirited debate on the Monroe doctrine. Senator Lodge, who introduced the resolution calling on the state department for information in regard to the Magdalena bay rumors, declared that it is time for some definite announcement in regard to the policy of the United States on the subject of foreign colonization in this hemisphere.

Senator Lodge showed by his remarks that, notwithstanding the president's message, he is still suspicious that Japan has designs on Magdalena bay as a naval station. He intimated that the Japanese, who already have a fishing concession there, are more interested now in obtaining maps of the coast than they are drawing nets.

Senator Rayner inquired what right the United States government had to interfere with foreign colonization or industrial development in Mexico.

WOMAN RESENTS BID FOR HUSBAND BY SUFFRAGETTES

New York, May 2.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt has been asked by the Men's League for Women Suffrage to head the division of men who will march in the big parade of May 4. The colonel hasn't replied to the letter of invitation.

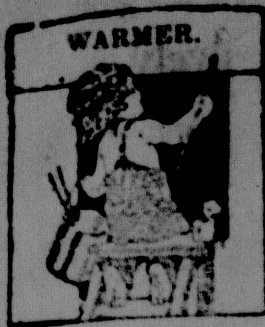

Meanwhile, it was said that hundreds of acceptances are coming in from men who have been asked if they would like to march. It is now certain that there will be not less than 1,200 men in line.

A league officer stated that of the 1,000 letters to men sent out, only one had been answered with a refusal. The refusal came from the man's wife. She said she was so angered by the invitation that she could not reply to it, so she wrote only three pages telling what she thought of the league and of woman suffrage.

Order From Chaos In New Traffic Ordinance

Rules of the Street Will Probably Be Similar to Those Tried Successfully in Chillicothe—Action Monday Night.

At the regular monthly meeting of the City Council next Monday night a traffic ordinance is to be introduced and adopted, in order to lessen the danger of the present confused manner of traffic, and to bring something like order out of chaos.

When the ordinance becomes effective a rigid enforcement is promised, and the danger to everyone on the streets will be greatly lessened.

In Chillicothe the traffic ordinance became effective in April, 1910, and has been a decided success. A fine of $1 to $10 is assessed against offenders. The ordinance to be adopted by council will probably be similar to the following Chillicothe traffic rules:

1. Vehicles shall be driven in a careful manner and with due regard for the safety and convenience of pedestrians and all other vehicles.
2. Vehicles shall keep to the right side of the street except when necessary to turn to the left in crossing or in overtaking another vehicle.
3. Vehicles shall pass each other on the right.
4. Vehicles overtaking shall keep to the left of the overtaken vehicle in passing.
5. Vehicles in the congested districts moving slowly shall keep as close as possible to the curb on the right, allowing more swiftly moving vehicles free passage on their left.
6. Vehicles turning to the right into another street shall turn the corner as near to the right hand as possible.

Large Number Hogs Given Treatment

Prominent farmers of the county who are largely engaged in the hog business are taking all measures to insure healthy hogs.

Dr. Olds, state veterinarian, was in this county the past two days giving the serum treatment to insure immunity.

On Tuesday, Elton Marine, south of town, had 310 hogs treated and on Wednesday, Frank L. Parrett, of the Prairie pike, 420 treated at his different farms.

The hogs seem in fine condition and are now protected from future danger.

Aged Parents Seek Release of Son

Bent with advanced age and the hair white with more than three score winters, the parents of Charles Brown, seek the release of their crying son who is now in the lock-up with a workhouse sentence starting him in the face as a result of being convicted of bootlegging.

The aged couple have no money and are trying their best to raise enough to secure the release of their son, Mayor Smith having offered a reasonable settlement of the fine.

At last accounts the parents were still seeking to raise $25 and give surety for the remaining $25 and costs, the remainder of the $200 fine being suspended.

Plans for Temple Have Not Arrived

Plans and specifications for the new Masonic Temple have not been completed, but are expected to arrive in this city any day, whereupon the committee in charge will take prompt action toward having work commence at an early date.

It is said that the plans will be along the lines previously announced, the second floor being devoted exclusively to offices.

When work is once commenced every effort will be made to complete the big building without delay.

Appropriated Horse Forced to Lead It Home

Peculiar Case in Which John Street Man Takes Horse of New Holland Farmer and Escapes Arrest.

A case of horse-stealing or near-horse-stealing, came to light Wednesday when Mr. D. R. Porter and others from New Holland, came to this city in an automobile and compelled one, Harley Arnold, a resident of John street, to lead a horse back to the Porter farm near New Holland.

It is claimed that Arnold visited the Porter neighborhood Tuesday night, visiting friends, and in leaving he quietly walked off with an aged horse which was found grazing along the roadside. The animal belonged to Mr. Porter, and when he missed it and instituted a search, suspicion pointed toward Arnold as being the man who had appropriated the beast.

He climbed into an auto and drove to this city, locating Arnold and the threatened to have him arrested for horse-stealing if he did not take the animal back at once. This he agreed to do and did.

According to a statement Arnold is alleged to have made, Porter is said to have promised him the animal if he would "remove it" after night.

The fact that Porter caused immediate return of the animal indicates that he had not thought of presenting the horse to the man.

QUIT CALOMEL!

Thousands Are Turning from This Dangerous Drug.

A Safe Vegetable Substitute Is Olive Tablets for the Liver.

Dr. F. M. Edwards, a prominent physician of Portsmouth, Ohio, has discovered a new laxative and liver-toner in a combination of vegetable materials, mixed with olive oil, which is in effect almost exactly like the old and untrustworthy calomel, except that there are none of the bad after effects of calomel.

Dr. Edwards has long been a foe of calomel, though he recognized its value along with its dangers.

His distrust of the uncertain drug eventually started him years ago towards experiments with the view of discovering a substitute, and he is today in possession of the long-sought-for combination, which is in the shape of a little sugar-coated, olive-oil colored tablet.

The results of fifteen years' experience and practice are embodied in these marvelous little tablets.

They are called Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, and their effect on the liver has been the means of relief to many of Dr. Edwards' regular patients as well as to thousands of others who have suffered and were afraid of calomel.

They are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of harmful impurities.

"Every Little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own."

Stars and Stripes An Ancient Flag

Curiously enough, the United States, while one of the youngest of nations, displays the oldest flag, comparatively speaking.

The American flag in its present form was adopted in the year 1777, and the only changes made in it since that time have been the addition of the new stars for the new states as they come into the Union. Our British cousins often refer in affectionate terms to their ensign as the flag that has "braved a thousand years the battle and the breeze." But they forget that the Union Jack in its present form only dates from 1801.

The French tricolor was adopted in 1794, the Spanish flag as now displayed in 1785, while the German and Italian flags are no older than the empire and kingdom respectively. —New York Herald.

Hundred Different Kinds of "Refrescos" Are Used.

Infirmities of Man Are Supposed to Be Helped, If Not Cured, by Various Concoctions, Either Hot, Cold or Tepid, but Never Iced.

Havana, Cuba.—The old colored cook in Cuba when she goes to market can pick out the pork obtained from pigs which have been fed on sugar cane alone, and she refuses to purchase any other. No one can cheat her into buying alcohol made from any other source, either. Some foreigners may not know real aguardiente, pure and undefiled sugar cane made, but she does. She bathes her face in it, she rubs the baby with it, she puts a drop of it in the baby's hot soup, makes a cross on the forehead as a charm against evil spells with the aguardiente and thanks heaven for the ever present remedy. It restores her spirits as efficaciously as French cognac does her Spanish masters.

Should a wound be received a remedy is at hand, the sore is bathed in aguardiente, a little taken for the stomach's sake, and all is well. Aguardiente is as close, even much closer at hand often than is water, and it is the remedy of all remedies for every ill flesh is heir to among the majority of natives. Sometimes it is used to spice a hot cup of tea made from the leaf of the orange tree or a distilled hot tea called tita. All the infirmities of man are supposed in Cuba to be helped, if not cured, by a drink of some kind, hot or cold or tepid, but iced never. What a flying in the face of Providence to a Cuban it is to drink iced anything! Tea as known in other countries is slightly esteemed and seldom used.

As to water, yes, it is used as a drink in every house. But it is natural water, A "tineja" for water stands in every home, enclosed by slats of mahogany or carved teakwood and ivory, according to the owner's wealth, and in the large porous earthen jar within is water, but iced never.

In the poorer houses swings the "porron" somewhere in the circulating air. It is a porous earthenware bottle. You drink from it directly by throwing back your head and pouring it, deftly aiming the stream from the right spout—for there are two, one to drink from, the other to fill it by—straight down the throat. No water ever tastes better, even from a coconut gourd, but practice alone can make perfect in dexterity with the "porron."

Tamarind is cooling to the foreign blood. It is served as a crushed pulp mixed with sugar and water. Perhaps you prefer a refreshing drink of crushed pineapple—but pineapple in its native juicy, normal state and superiority. There are a hundred "refrescos" of juicy fruits ever at hand, from the anon, the custard apple planted in the Garden of Eden by Mother Nature, to the chirimoya, the papaya and scores of others. Their names may be unpronounceable to the stranger, but are glibly rolled off by the residents of the Garden of Eden, as every native calls his beloved island.

BATH AT A HOLLAND HOTEL

Tourist Writes of His Experience at Old Hostelry—Charge 40 Cents for Water.

Amsterdam, Holland.—There are some things about a trip through Holland that you recall when stopping at one of our modern hotels," said Albert Sampter at the Hotel Pontchartrain. "In many places the hotels are run as they have been for ages and candles still are the vogue."

"Rooms with bath are unknown. Instead they charge you about 40 cents in American money for a bath. You ask for the privilege of using the tub and they send up a maid who brings with her towels and soap if you have none, for you are supposed to carry both with you. She fills the tub, has it about the right degree of heat, and the faucets are locked, so that if you want any more water you don't get it; also there is no chance for your traveling pal sneaking in and enjoying a bath without coming through with another 40 cents."

"You are provided with one candle a day and charged for it. The lights go out early in the night, and if you happen to get up or want to read you have to use a candle. This does not apply to Amsterdam, which is a metropolitan city."

MANAGER COBURN

HAS GOOD SHOW

Popular Minstrel Manager Presented Pleasing Performance Last Night.

For many years Manager J. A. Coburn has brought to this city an attraction which has pleased. Last night was no exception to the rule.

Manager Coburn can be relied upon to give to the theatergoers a clean and refined entertainment. He has never disappointed them and for that reason he is receiving the endorsement of both press and public throughout the country.

The performance as a whole was up to the standard and pleased the audience. Charley Gano, who had been featured, made good and delivered the goods. His singing and work throughout the evening elicited the applause of those present repeatedly. Leslie D. Barry, Justin J. McCarthy and Tom Post furnished their part of amusement to make the evening a pleasant one.

"Mantel's marionettes" was seen here last season, but the performance was no less enjoyable last night.

Summing the performance up, Manager Coburn is keeping his record up and is pleasing his patrons throughout the South.

Order From Chaos In New Traffic Ordinance

Rules of the Street Will Probably Be Similar to Those Tried Successfully in Chillicothe—Action Monday Night.

At the regular monthly meeting of the City Council next Monday night a traffic ordinance is to be introduced and adopted, in order to lessen the danger of the present confused manner of traffic, and to bring something like order out of chaos.

When the ordinance becomes effective a rigid enforcement is promised, and the danger to everyone on the streets will be greatly lessened.

In Chillicothe the traffic ordinance became effective in April, 1910, and has been a decided success. A fine of $1 to $10 is assessed against offenders. The ordinance to be adopted by council will probably be similar to the following Chillicothe traffic rules:

1. Vehicles shall be driven in a careful manner and with due regard for the safety and convenience of pedestrians and all other vehicles.
2. Vehicles shall keep to the right side of the street except when necessary to turn to the left in crossing or in overtaking another vehicle.
3. Vehicles shall pass each other on the right.
4. Vehicles overtaking shall keep to the left of the overtaken vehicle in passing.
5. Vehicles in the congested districts moving slowly shall keep as close as possible to the curb on the right, allowing more swiftly moving vehicles free passage on their left.
6. Vehicles turning to the right into another street shall turn the corner as near to the right hand as possible.

Large Number Hogs Given Treatment

Prominent farmers of the county who are largely engaged in the hog business are taking all measures to insure healthy hogs.

Dr. Olds, state veterinary, was in this county the past two days giving the serum treatment to insure immunity.

On Tuesday, Elton Marine, south of town, had 310 hogs treated and on Wednesday, Frank L. Parrett, of the Prairie pike, 420 treated at his different farms.

The hogs seem in fine condition and are now protected from future danger.

Aged Parents Seek Release of Son

Bent with advanced age and the hair white with more than three score winters, the parents of Charles Brown, seek the release of their erring son who is now in the lock-up with a workhouse sentence starting him in the face as a result of being convicted of bootlegging.

The aged couple have no money and are trying their best to raise enough to secure the release of their son, Mayor Smith having offered a reasonable settlement of the fine.

At last accounts the parents were still seeking to raise $25 and give surety for the remaining $25 and costs, the remainder of the $200 fine being suspended.

Plans for Temple Have Not Arrived

Plans and specifications for the new Masonic Temple have not been completed, but are expected to arrive in this city any day, whereupon the committee in charge will take prompt action toward having work commenced at an early date.

It is said that the plans will be along the lines previously announced, the second floor being devoted exclusively to offices.

When work is once commenced every effort will be made to complete the big building without delay.

Appropriated Horse Forced to Lead It Home

Peculiar Case in Which John Street Man Takes Horse of New Holland Farmer and Escapes Arrest.

A case of horse-stealing or near-horse stealing, came to light Wednesday when Mr. D. R. Porter and others from New Holland, came to this city in an automobile and compelled one, Harley Arnold, a resident of John street, to lead a horse back to the Porter farm near New Holland.

It is claimed that Arnold visited the Porter neighborhood Tuesday night, visiting friends, and in leaving he quietly walked off with an aged horse which was found grazing along the roadside. The animal belonged to Mr. Porter, and when he missed it and instituted a search, suspicion pointed toward Arnold as being the man who had appropriated the beast.

He climbed into an auto and drove to this city, locating Arnold and the threatened to have him arrested for horse-stealing if he did not take the animal back at once. This he agreed to do and did.

According to a statement Arnold is alleged to have made, Porter is said to have promised him the animal if he would "remove it after night."

The fact that Porter caused immediate return of the animal indicates that he had not thought of presenting the horse to the man.

QUIT CALOMEL!

Thousands Are Turning From This Dangerous Drug
A Safe Vegetable Substitute Is Olive Tablets for the Liver.

Dr. F. M. Edwards, a prominent physician of Portsmouth, Ohio, has discovered a new laxative and liver toner in a combination of vegetable materials, mixed with olive oil, which is in effect almost exactly like the old and untrustworthy calomel, except that there are none of the bad after effects of calomel.

Dr. Edwards has long been a foe of calomel, though he recognized its value along with its dangers. His distrust of the uncertain drug eventually started him years ago towards experiments with the view of discovering a substitute, and he is today in possession of the long-sought-for combination, which is in the shape of a little sugar-coated, olive-oil colored tablet.

The results of fifteen years' experience and practice are embodied in these marvelous little tablets. They are called Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, and their effect on the liver has been the means of relief to many of Dr. Edwards' regular patients as well as to thousands of others who have suffered and were afraid of calomel.

They are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of harmful impurities.

"Every little Olive Tablet has a movement all its own."

10c and 25c per box.

Stars and Stripes An Ancient Flag

Curiously enough, the United States, while one of the youngest of nations, displays the oldest flag comparatively speaking.

The American flag in its present form was adopted in the year 1777, and the only changes made in it since that time have been the addition of the new stars for the new states as they came into the Union. Our British cousins often refer in affectionate terms to their ensign as the flag that has "braved a thousand years the battle and the breeze." But they forget that the Union Jack in its present form only dates from 1801.

The French tricolor was adopted in 1794, the Spanish flag as now displayed in 1785, while the German and Italian flags are no older than the empire and kingdom respectively. —New York Herald.

CHICHESTER'S PILLS
For the cure of all ailments of the bowels and bladder. Sold by druggists everywhere.

An event of marked interest in social circles of both this city and Bloomingburg, was a beautiful May day party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. West, on the Columbus pike, to announce the marriage of their youngest daughter, Miss Sallie to Mr. Elton Marine.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the Washington C. H. High school and a niece of Mrs. Hibben Ervin, and is as much at home in Washington society as in that of her neighboring village. An unusually pretty girl and with a winsome manner, which makes her doubly attractive, she has been a favorite in both circles. Miss West spent the past winter with her parents in California and sight-seeing through the West.

The prospective bridegroom is one of the well-known and successful young farmers of the county, operating the large John S. Parrett farm on the Rock Bridge road in addition to his own. An all-round good fellow, he counts his friends in Washington and vicinity by the scores.

The affair was supposed to be a meeting of the Girls' Embroidery club of Bloomingburg. Miss Stella West the afternoon's hostess.

The perfect day, a wealth of spring blossoms and the unexpectedness of the announcement combined to make it distinctively the event of the club season. The spacious West home was a perfect bower of fragrant, pink tipped apple blossoms.

The guests were invited to the dining room for the elaborate luncheon spread in ignorance of the announcement, which was made in a very pretty way. An immense May day basket of apple blossoms and white lilacs stood in the center of the table. From its heart extended pink ribbons with clusters of apple blossoms attaching them to the plates. Pulling the ribbons the guests drew gilt-edged hearts, with the inscription in gold—"Sallie West—Elton Marine, June 12th, 1912," making the double announcement of the engagement and the wedding date.

After the supper Miss West's cunning little nephew, Hewitt West, brought to her the engagement ring in a tiny basket of apple blossoms. Miss Margaret Brown was the only guest from here.

The Wednesday night club dance was one of gay pleasure to twenty-five couples last night.

Miss Laura Miller, of Circleville, Miss Ossie Patton, of Hillsboro, and Mr. Ingram, of Buffalo, N. Y., were out-of-town guests.

A pretty home wedding with spring flowers and bright sunshine filling the rooms, took place at the country residence of Mrs. Jonathan Smith, south of town Wednesday noon, when her daughter, Miss May, was married to Mr. Hollis Holdren, a young farmer of Mt. Sterling.

Rev. T. W. Locke, of Grace church, performed the ceremony, after which a sumptuous wedding dinner was served.

The family and immediate friends were in attendance.

The bride has many friends who will speed her departure with good wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Holdren left on the afternoon train for their new home in Mt. Sterling.

FIRST LESSON IN TWO-STEP

PERCE PEARCE, Instructor.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized at half-past seven o'clock Thursday morning at St. Colman's church, when Miss Theresa Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Trustin Allen, of the Jeffersonville pike, was united to Mr. William Ging, son of Mrs. Mary Ging, of the Ging road.

Rev. Father Fogarty impressively performed the ring ceremony with nuptial high mass sung by a quartet, Miss Regina McDonald, Messrs. Charles Cullen, James McDonald, Thomas Gilliland, Miss Mary McDonald, organist.

Miss Regina McDonald sang most sweetly the communion hymn.

The altars blazed with electric lights and beautifully decorated with cut flowers formed an effective background for the bridal tableau.

The youthful bride was very lovely in a handsome gown of white nee-salme trimmed in crystal beaded fringe, with large hat all white.

The attendants were the bride's sister, Miss Elizabeth Allen and Mr. Emmet Passmore. The maid was very pretty in pink messaline, with white hat wreathed in pink rosebuds.

After the ceremony the wedding party and immediate families were served with an elegant wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ging left on the 10:36 B. & O. for Battle Creek, Mich., where they will spend a week or two and then make their home at "Model Farm," the attractive country home of the Gings.

Both young people have a wide circle of friends in the county who will await their return with warm congratulations.

Mrs. Ed Brown and daughter, Genevieve, of Asheville, N. C., are the guests of Mrs. Frank L. Parrett, on the Prairie pike.

Mrs. Ralph Trevillo and little daughter, Katharine, of Roxabel, are visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Vincent.

Miss Laura Miller, who has been Miss Roxie Stinson's guest the past week, left today for her home in Circleville. Miss Stinson accompanied her to attend the May dance Friday night.

Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Ireland returned Wednesday night from their extensive three months' western trip. Both are enthusiastic over their delightful trip. During their stay in California they made headquarters at Los Angeles, visiting Dr. and Mrs. M. S. Creamer, and toured the state, taking in the principal places of interest. On the way home they stopped in Utah and Colorado and have been visiting their daughter, Mrs. Roy Dove and family, in Shelbyville, Ill., since the last of the week.

Mrs. Mary Brownell and daughter, Mrs. Earl Cockerill, left Wednesday morning for their home in Dayton. Mr. Cockerill joins them tonight. Belonging to two of Washington's old families and having an unusually large circle of friends, the departure of the Cockerills and Mrs. Brownell arouses sincere regret in the community. Their removal to Dayton is necessitated by Mr. Cockerill's change of business, as a member of the B. & C. Dayton Co., a large incorporated grocery firm, which requires his personal attention.

Mrs. Mack Stucker and Mrs. Jane VanPelt were guests at the home of Mr. J. N. Rowe, at Staunton last night to attend the Staunton commencement.

Miss Gertrude and Edith Gardner have returned from a visit of several weeks with Dr. and Mrs. Stevens, in Asheville, N. C.

Mr. Bradley, of Erie, Pa., commercial agent of the American Express Co., is a business visitor here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Parrett have returned to London after a visit with Mr. Parrett's mother, Mrs. John S. Parrett.

Mr. Albert Bonecutter is visiting his son, Mr. Otis Bonecutter and family above Bloomingburg.

Mrs. Dr. Ramsey, of Detroit, Mich., was the guest of Mrs. Sharp-Davies today.

Mrs. Joe Murphy is the guest of South Charleston friends.

Miss Light announces here annual public recitals for May as follows: Saturday, May 4, a matinee musical program at 2:30 o'clock. Tuesday evening, May 14. Friday evening, May 17.

All to be given in the First Baptist church. A cordial invitation to be present is extended to the public.

Love Found Way Wedding Day Late

Wednesday noon Herman Jones, colored, aged 19, residing at Martinsville, appeared at the probate judge's office in company with Clara Rose, 17, and her mother.

Consent was filed by the mother, but when Jones presented a written consent which was not signed, Clerk Maddox proceeded no further, but ordered Jones to secure his father's consent. After trying in vain to escape the required consent, Jones left his bride-to-be in this city and took the B. & O. to Midland City, transferred and went up to Martinsville, secured the written consent of his father and came back Thursday morning, appearing at the probate judge's office just as the clock was striking 2 p. m., secured the license and hurried across the street to hunt Marrying Justice Craig.

Plans Completed Work Begins Soon

Mr. E. F. Babbitt, chief engineer of Frank L. Packard, Columbus architect, was in town yesterday and met with the Y. M. C. A. Building committee. Mr. Babbitt inspected the Association building and spent some time with the committee going over the plans for the Stinson building.

The completed plans for the Stinson Industrial school building, will be finished and turned over to the committee in the next week.

The basement of the building will be used for a machine shop where mechanical trades can be taught. The second floor will be used for agricultural purposes, and on the third there will be 7 sleeping rooms.

The general architecture will be the same as that of the present Y. M. C. A. It is understood that work on the structure will be started sometime this month.

The completed plans for the Stinson, a former townman, now of Los Angeles, and will enable the Y. M. C. A. to carry on one of the most important branches of its great work.

Since the publication in The Herald of Wednesday of the quotation used by ex-Governor Folk at the close of his lecture here at Grace church, and our information as to the author, Mrs. J. T. Tuttle has called attention to the fact that the exact quotation is from Hymn No. 412 in The Methodist Hymnal, and that Frederick W. Faber is the author.

In this Mrs. Tuttle and Major Shaw agree and in the Editor's note following the quotation on Wednesday that fact should have been noted. Major Shaw called attention to the fact that the quotation was to be found in "The Right Must Win," a poem by F. W. Faber, 1814-1882.

At the same time it was also pointed out by Major Shaw that the idea contained in this stanza was taken from George Crabbe, 1754-1832, an English poet.

IN SOCIETY

An event of marked interest in social circles of both this city and Bloomingburg, was a beautiful May day party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. West, on the Columbus pike, to announce the marriage of their youngest daughter, Miss Sallie, to Mr. Elton Marine.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the Washington C. H. High school and a niece of Mrs. Hibben Ervin, and is as much at home in Washington society as in that of her neighboring village. An unusually pretty girl and with a winsome manner which makes her doubly attractive, she has been a favorite in both circles. Miss West spent the past winter with her parents in California and sight-seeing through the West.

The prospective bridegroom is one of the well-known and successful young farmers of the county, operating the large John S. Parrett farm on the Rock Bridge road in addition to his own. An all-round good fellow, he counts his friends in Washington and vicinity by the scores.

The affair was supposed to be a meeting of the Girls' Embroidery club of Bloomingburg. Miss Stella West the afternoon's hostess.

The perfect day, a wealth of spring blossoms and the unexpectedness of the announcement combined to make it distinctively the event of the club season. The spacious West home was a perfect bower of fragrant, pink tipped apple blossoms.

The guests were invited to the dining room for the elaborate spread in ignorance of the announcement, which was made in a very pretty way. An immense May day basket of apple blossoms and white lilacs stood in the center of the table. From its heart extended pink ribbons with clusters of apple blossoms attaching them to the plates. Pulling the ribbons the guests drew white-edged hearts, with the inscription in gold: "Sallie West—Elton Marine, June 12th, 1912," making the double announcement of the engagement and the wedding date.

After the supper Miss West's cunning little nephew, Hewitt West, brought to her the engagement ring in a tiny basket of apple blossoms.

Miss Margaret Brown was the only guest from here.

The Wednesday night club dance was one of gay pleasure to twenty-five couples last night.

Miss Laura Miller, of Circleville, Miss Ossie Patton, of Hillsboro, and Mr. Ingram, of Buffalo, N. Y., were out-of-town guests.

A pretty home wedding with spring flowers and bright sunshine filling the rooms, took place at the country residence of Mrs. Jonathan Smith, south of town, Wednesday noon, when her daughter, Miss May, was married to Mr. Hollis Holdren, a young farmer of Mt. Sterling.

Rev. T. W. Locke, of Grace church, performed the ceremony, after which a sumptuous wedding dinner was served.

The family and immediate friends were in attendance. The bride has many friends who will speed her departure with good wishes. Mr. and Mrs. Holdren left on the afternoon train for their new home in Mt. Sterling.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized at half-past seven o'clock Thursday morning at St. Colman's church, when Miss Theresa Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Trustin Allen, on the Jeffersonville pike, was united to Mr. William Ging, son of Mrs. Mary Ging, of the Ging road.

Rev. Father Fogarty impressively performed the ring ceremony with nuptial high mass sung by a quartet, Miss Regina McDonald, Messrs. Charles Cullen, James McDonald, Thomas Gilliland, Miss Mary McDonald, organist.

Miss Regina McDonald sang most sweetly the communion hymn.

The altars blazed with electric lights and beautifully decorated with cut flowers formed an effective background for the bridal tableau.

The youthful bride was very lovely in a handsome gown of white messaline trimmed in crystal beaded fringe, with large hat all white.

The attendants were the bride's sister, Miss Elizabeth Allen and Mr. Emmet Passmore. The maid was very pretty in pink messaline, with white hat wreathed in pink rosebuds.

After the ceremony the wedding party and immediate families were served with an elegant wedding breakfast at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ging left on the 10:35 B. & O. for Battle Creek, Mich., where they will spend a week or two and then make their home at "Model Farm", the attractive country home of the Gings.

Both young people have a wide circle of friends in the county who will await their return with warm congratulations.

ZEBRA-DONKEY A SUCCESS

The creation of a new type is always interesting; the effort of the government to breed a zebra-donkey, or a zebra-horse is particularly so since they already appear measurably successful. The animal breeders of the department of agriculture were impressed some years ago with the splendid conformation, large size and great beauty of the big Grevy zebra which was presented to President Roosevelt by King Menelik of Abyssinia, and which found a home at the National Zoological park at Washington. The zebra was bred to donkeys and the resulting hybrids are apparently great successes, a half dozen colts and fillies now poking their noses over the fences at visitors to the zoo. So far as markings are concerned they show somewhat faint reproductions of the strongly marked black and white stripes of the zebra stallion, but their parentage is evident. They are, however, as hardy, apparently, and endure the climate of Washington as well as the donkeys.

The striking feature of the cross-breeding is that the hybrids show a decided improvement in other respects over both parents in action, conformation and disposition. The Grevy stallion weighs 800 pounds and is 18 1/2 hands high, and while he is a beauty, he is not particularly affectionate; on the contrary he is vicious. The average weight of the donkey dams is 550, twelve hands high. The weight of the hybrids when only a year old was 500 and they stood twelve hands high. They have good action, a neat, clean-cut appearance, and are as gentle as horses' foals of the same age.

The hybrids ought to be tough, for the zebra in Africa is about the toughest thing in the horse line in the world, and he apparently loses none of these qualities by change of residence. The hybrids, then, should develop into animals with much greater endurance than the mule, and should be almost as tough.

The zebra in Africa is immune to many diseases and pests which kill off horses and mules, and it is expected that the new hybrids will prove themselves more hardy and disease resistant than even the famous Missouri army mule.

TEACH THEM TO RESPECT.

The efficiency of our consular service and the zeal with which the American government looks after the life and the property of its citizens in foreign lands, now brought prominently to the forefront by conditions in Mexico, is not such as to cause Americans to blush with honest pride.

The treatment accorded American citizens by the people of Mexico during the present disturbances has been nothing short of outrageous and an open and intentional insult to the United States government and it has not been unusual during the last six months for American citizens to appeal to the British or German authorities for protection.

The protection afforded British subjects by the London government is recognized and admired over all the world. There is no place on the earth's surface so remote that the government of King George does not extend a protecting arm to the loyal Briton.

No matter how great the cost and no matter how long the road, that government, the world has been taught to know, will answer whenever a call for aid is sent by a British subject. He receives that aid and if assistance comes too late vengeance swift and sure is dealt out to any people anywhere who dare to insult the British flag or infringe on the rights of an Englishman.

Mexico knows this fact and so does every other nation, civilized or barbarous. The nations of black men far in the interior of darkest Africa, if they know only one thing about the world outside that one thing, is respect for the English flag and the rights of Englishmen.

Perhaps a desire to be more than fair with the factions in Mexico has led the government at Washington to tolerate the abuse by the Grovers across the Rio Grande. It is a mistake not to afford our citizens the greatest measure of protection.

That protection if given would command respect, save life and property and prevent rather than provoke bloodshed.

England lets the world know that her citizens will be protected, if possible, and revenged if protection is impossible.

There is no good reason why our government should not be known in the same way and right now is the time, and Mexico the place to show the world that Uncle Sam's protecting arm is as long as Johnny Bull's, and just as strong.

Strive For Commercial Conquest of South America

By CHARLES WILLINGTON FURLONG, Explorer and Writer

IF there is any idea left in the American mind that the United States may ultimately annex any South American countries it had better be forgotten permanently. ANNEXATION WOULD NOT BE DESIRABLE FOR EITHER SIDE. We can easily retain all the commercial benefits of association with these countries without assuming new territorial responsibilities.

The good will of the South Americans is worth a good deal to us. They are not like the Mexicans or the Filipinos or even the Central Americans. They are a PROUD PEOPLE; and their culture—a fact which is usually forgotten, but which is very important in understanding the situation—is much older than ours.

South America should be carefully distinguished from Central America. The notion that South America has frequent revolutions, like Central America has, is a false idea. Central America is less civilized and doesn't come in contact with the outside world so much. THE SOUTH AMERICAN REPUBLICS WERE, MANY OF THEM, STARTED TWENTY YEARS AFTER

OURS WAS, and their constitutions were modeled after ours. Most of the alleged revolutions which we have heard about in South America have in reality been nothing but "strikes," less serious than our own labor strikes.

WHAT WE AMERICANS SHOULD STRIVE FOR IN SOUTH AMERICA IS COMMERCIAL CONQUEST. THE NATURAL RESOURCES OF THE SOUTH AMERICAN CONTINENT ARE ENORMOUS, AS EVERY ONE KNOWS. ARGENTINA EXPORTED MORE WHEAT THAN THE UNITED STATES DID TWO YEARS AGO AND IS THE SECOND LARGEST WOOL EXPORTER OF ALL THE COUNTRIES OF THE WORLD.

All the best land, of course, in Argentina is now taken up. You can travel all the way across Argentina to Chile on the Transcontinental railroad without being at any time out of sight of grazing cattle or sheep. But if American business men are going to handle trade in South America in competition with the Germans they must ADOPT DIFFERENT BUSINESS METHODS than they have adopted heretofore. South American business firms like rather long credit—ninety days. The business houses there have been established just as long as ours have and are perfectly safe.

THE FIGHTING MAN'S WAIL.

I've hiked for Uncle Samuel, and I've never shirked a bit;
I've trod the dusty highways and have never lagged or quit.
Nobody's heard me holler when an order came to flit—
But Uncle please don't send me down to Texas.

I'm sick of fighting, sadden where the Rio Grande flows
Of hollering excitement where excitement never grows
I'm sick of wildernesses where I can't get my clothes
So, Uncle, please don't send me down to Texas.

They say they have cool summers in the land of Timbuctoo;
But down along the border, they never do.
And a campy water drillin' is just a human stew.
So, Uncle, please don't send me down to Texas.

We'd welcome an old China or the jungles of the East,
But this twirling thimble and waiting is the job that suits the least.
We've sent out picture postals till our interest has ceased—
So, Uncle, please don't send me down to Texas.

Xenia Bankrupt Bills Are Unpaid

Xenia is on the verge of bankruptcy as a result of the Smith one per cent law.

The safety fund is exhausted and the service fund is nearly depleted. In addition to this the water and light bills remain unpaid, and there is no money available to meet the bills. The safety fund was exhausted in paying salaries of police and firemen, and there is no more money in sight until August, when the July tax settlement is made.

The officials of Xenia are now puzzling their brain over the perplexing financial problem before them, and expect the Water and Light companies to bring suit for collection of the money due them.

The last six months of the year will be much worse than the first six and those in charge of the city affairs must face the truth of "the worst is yet to come."

THE DEMONS OF THE SWAMP

The appetite flies and the strength fails; also malaria often paves the way for deadly typhoid. But Electric Bitters kill and cast out the malaria germs from the blood; give you a fine appetite and renew your strength. "After long suffering," wrote Wm. Fretwell, of Lucama, N. # MAYOR GAYNOR

FOE OF GRAFT.

Mayor Gaynor in oilskins. The mayor does his inspecting of city work in person and thoroughly. In this instance he was examining New York's great water supply siphon under the Hudson river. Some other city officials declined to descend the 1,200 foot shaft in a bucket.

It is still regarded as nothing short of a miracle that any man should have the power to wield such a marked influence over any community, large or small, as is exercised by Mayor William J. Gaynor of New York. The whole spirit of the town has changed since he moved into the city hall. There has been a decided lessening of the nervous strain which was supposed to be a necessary evil incident to life in a great city and a gradual return to a more normal state of mind.

Set on a Hair Trigger.

In former days every administration seemed to be set on a hair trigger, and this nerve tension worked its way into the whole fabric of the city until it extended down to the basements. This was due primarily, no doubt, to the constant criticism of the opposition in municipal affairs and to the knowledge on the part of those who were criticized that much of it was merited. The cry of "graft" which was continually being raised in one direction or another was all that was required to start a panic among all those who were interested, directly or indirectly. No sooner was it uttered than trouble would break out somewhere else.

Those in authority felt that they must do something, and do it quick, and in their hurry to silence criticism they often made bad matters worse. Those who paid the taxes, whether as property owners or rent payers, felt that they were not getting the worth of their money. People who worked for the city or did business with it were required by the time honored law of precedent to pay tribute to some man "higher up." Businessmen caught the fever and became suspicious of each other, and so it went, with the voice of accusation always in the air. "Do your neighbor or he will do you" became the New York motto.

Cannot Be Stampeded.

Under Mr. Gaynor all this has been changed. The people have learned that at last they have a mayor who cannot be stampeded or carried off his feet, who regards New York as a great business institution and is determined to administer its affairs with absolute honesty and with no consideration other than the interests of its citizens, who believes that people should be as honest in their dealings with the city as in their relations with each other and who holds the rights of every good citizen to be sacred and inviolate. They have weighed him in the balance—some of them with misgivings at first, through their old skepticism—and they have not found him wanting. They have seen him correct so many abuses which they had thought never would or could be corrected that they have come to have faith that he will do all things well. And, trusting him, they have come to trust each other. Things have come to such a pass that people speak of the Ten Commandments without apologizing and discuss moral principles in public without blushing.

MAYOR GAYNOR AS A YOUNG CRUSADER.

[From a photograph taken at the time he sent "Boss" John V. McKane to the penitentiary for election frauds.]

"Quietly and Decently."

This revolution is not due to the fact that the mayor is not radical, for he is radical enough to suit any one but an out and out anarchist, but rather to his wholesome point of view and to his insistence that all things be done "quietly and decently," which is one of his mottoes. It is attributable, too, to the fact that he has always kept close to the people and studied conditions. He knows what the people want and understands their needs.

Twenty times at least he has been told, sometimes by his most trusted advisers, that if he issued this or that new order, upsetting old conditions and smashing traditions in both eyes, "the heavens would fall." But undisturbed he proceeded to lay down the new policy, and the heavens are still as far from the earth as before. The only thing that ever happened when he established one of these radical new rules—radical only in that they were in the interests of the plain people—was that a lot of rakes, including some of the early daughters, jumped up and gave three cheers for Gaynor. They have continued to cheer, for one reason or another, until it has developed into a habit.

Tens of Millions.

How much annual graft has been abolished by Mr. Gaynor since he took office it is impossible to state or even closely estimate. Certainly it runs into the tens of millions. He found corruption and oppression all about him. Without any blare of trumpets he put into practice the doctrines he had been preaching for years. He first took the police in hand and by vigorous measures put an end to clubbing and all undue interference with the rights of the citizen. He served notice on the saloon keepers, who had been paying $3,000,000 a year for "protection" through an association, that if they paid any money to the police they would be throwing it away and that if he found it out he would see that they were prosecuted. The police were told that they must enforce the law only in a lawful way, and they are doing it beyond the dream of the most altruistic citizen before Mr. Gaynor moved into the city hall.

Grafters Promptly Punished.

He discovered that the dockmasters had been working the richest kind of a gold mine at the city's expense. For many years without any sort of a check on them they had been collecting large fees from steamship companies for the use of the city's wharves and turning into the city as much or as little as they pleased. In his quiet but thorough way he caught some of them red handed. Availing himself of his right to sit as a committing magistrate, which no other mayor had ever exercised, he had the pleasure of binding one of them over to the grand jury.

Saved Over a Million.

In the one little item of city printing he effected a saving of more than a million dollars a year. Other departments were investigated with like results and reorganized with new men at the head of them. Graft was abolished and waste eliminated without regard to who was hurt. In national politics the mayor is a strong Democrat, but he holds that national politics has no place in municipal affairs. Consequently he has not considered politicians for political consequences, but only the interests of the people.

TEACH THEM TO RESPECT.

The efficiency of our consular service and the zeal with which the American government looks after the life and the property of its citizens in foreign lands, now brought prominently to the forefront by conditions in Mexico, is not such as to cause Americans to blush with honest pride.

The treatment accorded American citizens by the people of Mexico during the present disturbances has been nothing short of outrageous and an open and intentional insult to the United States government and it has not been unusual during the last six months for American citizens to appeal to the British or German authorities for protection.

The protection afforded British subjects by the London government is recognized and admired over all the world. There is no place on the earth's surface so remote that the government of King George does not extend a protecting arm to the loyal Briton.

No matter how great the cost and no matter how long the road, that government, the world has been taught to know, will answer whenever a call for aid is sent by a British subject. He receives that aid and if assistance comes too late vengeance swift and sure is dealt out to any people anywhere who dare to insult the British flag or infringe on the rights of an Englishman.

Mexico knows this fact and so does every other nation, civilized or barbarous. The nations of black men far in the interior of darkest Africa, if they know only one thing about the world outside that one thing, is respect for the English flag and the rights of Englishmen.

Perhaps a desire to be more than fair with the factions in Mexico has led the government at Washington to tolerate the abuse by the Greasers across the Rio Grande. It is a mistake not to afford our citizen the greatest measure of protection.

That protection if given would command respect, save life and property and prevent rather than provoke bloodshed.

England lets the world know that her citizens will be protected, if possible, and revenge if protection is impossible.

There is no good reason why our government should not be known in the same way and right now is the time, and Mexico the place to show the world that Uncle Sam's protecting arm is as long as Johnny Bull's, and just as strong.

Strive For Commercial Conquest of South America

By CHARLES WILLINGTON FURLONG, Explorer and Writer

IF there is any idea left in the American mind that the United States may ultimately annex any South American countries it had better be forgotten permanently. ANEXATION WOULD NOT BE DESIRABLE FOR EITHER SIDE. We can easily retain all the commercial benefits of association with these countries without assuming new territorial responsibilities.

The good will of the South Americans is worth a good deal to us. They are not like the Mexicans or the Filipinos or even the Central Americans. They are a PROUD PEOPLE; and their culture—a fact which is usually forgotten, but which is very important in understanding the situation—is much older than ours.

South America should be carefully distinguished from Central America. The notion that South America has frequent revolutions, like Central America has, is a false idea. Central America is less civilized and doesn't come in contact with the outside world so much. The SOUTH AMERICAN REPUBLICS WERE, MANY OF THEM, STARTED TWENTY YEARS AFTER

OURS WAS, and their constitutions were modeled after ours. Most of the alleged revolutions which we have heard about in South America have in reality been nothing but "strikes," less serious than our own labor strikes.

Annual Commencement Staunton High School

With music and flowers and all the accessories to make it attractive the third annual commencement of the Staunton High school passed off successfully Wednesday night in the Staunton M. E. church.

There was an immense concourse of people, which packed the church and number driving out from town and the surrounding country well represented.

The class officers, Ed Rose and Edna Rose, were elected in the class and Edna Rose was elected class president.

The music was superbly furnished by the Staunton orchestra under the direction of Mr. Ralph Jones.

The Staunton High school, in its commencement at the end of a two-year term, closed a year of excellent work.

Mr. T. A. Taylor, president of the school and the Board of Education, presided at the commencement. He was assisted by Mr. Jones, president of the Staunton High school, and Mr. Jones, president of the Staunton High school.

Out of the class four representatives had been chosen to deliver class orations. Jennie Rowe discussed the subject, "Cultivating the Virtues."

Ortha Lee, "Persephion," Hilda Taylor, "Mars," and the observation of the Sabbath, and Cecil Taylor, "The Virtues." The orations were excellent in their subject matter and presentation.

Deane Henson, of Miami University, delivered a fine address and presented the diploma.

Walter Bucher visited friends at Dayton Sunday.

Allen Ellars and wife were Sunday guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Paul.

Clyde Dickey of near South Salton visited Elmer Beatty's over Sunday.

The many friends and relatives of Mrs. Henry Bucher, who was taken to a private hospital in Columbus some few weeks ago, for special treatment, will be glad to learn that she is convalescing nicely.

Rumer and Son have contracted to erect a large stock barn, near Paint Chapel.

O. D. Coe is painting the Elber residence at Grassy Point.

W. L. Fulton was a So. Salton visitor Monday.

Mrs. Jessie Reese of Jeffersonville was a guest of Albert Hornbeck's Friday.

Miss Edna Hidy, daughter of Alfred Hidy, left last week for Denver, Colorado, where she met Mr. George Heironimus, son of J. G. Heironimus of near here, and were later quietly married in Denver and will make their future home on a ranch near the above city.

ESCAPES AN AWFUL FATE

A thousand tongues could not express the gratitude of Mrs. J. E. Cox, of Joliet, Ill., for her wonderful deliverance from an awful fate. "Typhoid pneumonia had left me with a dreadful cough," she writes. "Sometimes I had such awful coughing spells I thought I would die. I could get no help from doctor's treatment or other medicines till I used Dr. King's New Discovery. But I owe my life to this wonderful remedy for I scarcely cough at all now." Quick and safe, its the most reliable of all throat and lung medicines. Every bottle guaranteed. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free at Blackmer & Tanquary.

Milledgeville

Mrs. Whitehead spent the first of this week with relatives in Sabina.

Mrs. Katherine Grow of Jackson is visiting her sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Landrum.

The Ladies Aid Society delightfully surprised Monday night, one of its members, Mrs. C. O. Rankin, who is moving to Xenia. The evening was spent in spirited games and music. Refreshments, consisting of tea, cake and coffee, were served.

W. B. Rankin of Chicago, Ill., is spending this week with his parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. (riding) and son Charles, visited Charles Patch and family at Greenfield from Saturday until Monday.

Mrs. C. A. Rankin was the guest of Mrs. Howard Smith, near Center, last Thursday.

Mrs. E. Colburn returned from Springfield Monday where she was called by the illness of her mother. Mrs. Colburn withstood the operation nicely and is getting along as well as can be expected.

SCALES AND CRUSTS ON SKIN

Caused by Eczema and Adding to Its Horrors.

Try The Remedy At Our Risk.

The thick, hard crusts or scales that accompany nearly all kinds of skin diseases not only cover the surface but are so irritating that they add greatly to the suffering of the patient.

Alcoholic washes and ordinary ointments cannot penetrate these, but treatment with our new skin remedy, Saxon Salve, not only removes them painlessly but quickly the itching and burning. It also keeps the inflamed skin soft and comfortable and hastens the eruption bringing the skin back to its normal healthy condition.

Saxon Salve is mild enough for a children's remedy, yet is equally satisfactory for grown persons.

Try Saxon Salve if you have a skin disease of any kind—if you are not satisfied we give back your money. Blackmer & Tanquary, Drugists, Washington C. H., Ohio.

Jones Proposal Is Reported Back

The committee reported back to the Constitutional convention on Wednesday morning the proposal of Humphrey Jones for the establishment of the so-called Australian system of state guaranteed land titles, judicial authority being conferred upon county recorders. Under this system, published in The Herald in full, titles are registered and guaranteed by the state and the recorder is empowered to sit as a court in controversies affecting any matter relative thereto, his decisions being reviewable by the Court of Common Pleas. The committee also reported the Peck proposals giving to cities the right to regulate the so-called signboard evil.

Building Reaches The Third Floor

The cement work of the Dahl-Mil-Ukan building has reached the third floor, and the work of laying this floor is now under way.

The magnitude of the building is now apparent, and when the building is constructed still another story it will fill up a great part of the broken skyline.

The remainder of the interior cement work will probably be completed some time next week, and work on the walls has commenced.

Marshal Wings Escaping Prisoner

Wednesday while Bill Zimmerman, colored, was being tried before Mayor Hall, at Cedarville, he suddenly made a break for liberty, closely pursued by Marshal Kenyon, who took a shot at the flying man, wounding him in one leg.

This did not prevent Zimmerman from continuing to run until he fell exhausted after a two-mile chase in which a number of Cedarville citizens took part. He was returned to the village lockup.

Zimmerman and another colored man named Floyd Polly, were charged with stealing clover seed. The Cedarville mayor has been kept busy with various offenders lately.

EMPIRE THEATER

The Empire next Tuesday evening presents for five nights, only the Hartigan Stock Co., in a line of popular plays at popular prices.

This organization is composed of professional players and produce each play in a first-class manner. Each night a feature performance will be given, some celebrated drama being the offering. "The Yankee Doodle Boy", a three-act romantic comedy, presenting that clever comedian, Mr. Geo. L. Dick, will be the initial offering. Songs and Spanish dances incidental to the piece will be introduced. This comedy is said to be an up-to-the-minute entertainment.

Ladies will be admitted free on the opening performance Tuesday evening under the usual conditions.

Large Portraits

We make large portraits in any quantity. You do not have to buy a dozen.

Maybe you would like just two or three for some particular friend.

"Mary, did you see Mr. Jones in church Sunday?"

"Yes, Grace and I hardly recognized him, as I thought he was bald or nearly so. What has he done?"

"Well, Mary,

Mrs. Jones told me that he has been using Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream and he is so pleased he can't talk about anything else.

"If people would only take care of their hair, keep the scalp free from dirt, dandruff and itching scales, with this English Tonic, Herb Shampoo, an abundance of healthy hair would be the result."

"I know a lot of people who are using Mrs. Mason's Old English Shampoo Cream. They are all so enthusiastic over it. Blackmer & Tanquary—our local druggists—sell it; 25c a tube, enough for three or four shampoos."

Healthfulness Of Laughter

Merriopathy is the science of the healing laugh. Merriopathy is better than homeopathy or allopathy for the curing of all the gloom diseases and grouchy complaints that make life miserable. Some illnesses need drugs, some need the surgeon's knife, some can be cured with a good laugh, some can be smiled away, but neither you nor I ever knew of a sickness that was cured with a frown.

The wise physician well understands the therapeutic value of fun and a cheerful spirit. Medicine may be a necessary and powerful agent in the treatment of illness, but it may fail when fear and melancholy join hands with the disease. Laughter is one of the best medicines in the world, and lengthens life as well as brightens it. "A merry heart doeth good like a medicine," said the wise man, consequently we may employ it in many chronic cases without fear. Set the gloomy, discouraged neurasthenic invalid to laughing. ## Italian Military Aerial Squadron

Italy was the first country which had occasion to use aeroplanes in actual war in Tripoli, and the result was interesting. The aerial fleet has only forty aeroplanes and pilots at present, but there will soon be many more added, and owing to a good organization the question of army aeroplanes is to be rapidly developed. At present there are three military grounds in Italy, one on the Ticino River, one at Aviano, and a third at Padoa. Three others are soon to be installed. As regards aeroplanes, it may be mentioned that two small aeroplanes of 3,000 cubic yards were used in Tripoli. Italy now has three aeroplanes of this size, and is soon to have three others of 15,000 cubic yards. While the aeroplanes are built at the military shops the aeroplanes have to be ordered from France, but it is hoped to build them at home in the near future. Exchange.

Waited Until Titanic Sank. Washington, May 2. That the steamer Mt. Temple was within sight of the sinking Titanic, how to put out its lights and waited until the leviathan sank before approaching are the charges made in a sworn statement received by Senator Smith from Dr. F. C. Quizard of Toronto, a Mt. Temple passenger.

The Ohio Congressional Candidates Must Disclose

Within the next 10 days all candidates for Congress in Ohio, whether Democrats, Republicans, Socialists or representing any other party, must file with the Clerk of the House of Representatives a preliminary statement of their primary campaign expenditures.

Thus far it is said that few of the candidates have taken steps to prepare for this new wrinkle in the national publicity law, which was passed since the last congressional elections. Those candidates who already are members of the House are, of course, aware of the existence of the law, but it is said that many others who are seeking nominations on various tickets are not aware of it. Failure to make such preliminary statement is punishable by a fine of $500 or imprisonment for one year. In addition to this, statement of a further statement of the total amounts received and expended in the primary campaign must be filed within 10 days after the primary is held. The same penalty attaches to this provision. The law requires this publicity of campaign expenditures of all candidates regardless of whether or not they are successful. As the Ohio primaries are to be held on May 21 these statements must be filed not later than May 11.

"FIRST ONE IN"

THE PRESIDENT IN SOUTHLAND GETS GLAD HAND

Savannah, Ga., May 2.—President Taft was entertained by the Hibernian society of this city at the centennial anniversary of the organization of the society.

Mr. Taft was greeted with genuine southern hospitality upon his arrival here. He was met at the station by Governor Brown of Georgia and was escorted by a troop of mounted police to the home of General W. W. Gordon, whose guest Mr. Taft was during his stay here.

Upon the conclusion of the banquet, the president motored to the Georgia Central station and boarded his private car, Colonial, which left for Augusta. Mr. Taft will attend a memorial service there today for the late Major Archibald W. Butt.

OHIO HAPPENINGS

Must Cease Alleged Graft.
Columbus, O., May 2.—The state utilities commission issued an order to the Middlebrook Gas and Electric company, commanding it to omit the enforcement of a rule by which, before they will set a meter on a service and turn on the electric current, the owner of the building must get a certificate of inspection from the "state inspection bureau." The board holds that it is a species of graft, which is an agency maintained by fire insurance companies doing business in the state.

To Have Anti-Vaccination School.
Dayton, O., May 2.—Plans for opening the proposed independent school for unvaccinated children are being pushed by the committee named at an anti-vaccination indignation meeting. Recognizing that the board of health and school board are acting under their powers in forbidding the attendance at school of the unvaccinated, the anti are determined to open one of their own schools.

White Is Seriously Ill

Oskaloosa, Ia., May 2.—John P. White, national president of the United Mine Workers of America, was taken suddenly ill at his home here with hemorrhages, caused by ruptured blood vessels. Physicians succeeded in stopping the flow of blood, but the patient is said to be in a serious condition. President White has authorized William Green of Coshocton, O., to represent him in the negotiations in New York today.

Wings Escaping Prisoner.
Xenia, O., May 2.—After making a sensational escape from the courtroom of Mayor Bull at Cedarville, where he was arraigned on a grand larceny charge, Bill Zimmerman was shot in the leg by Marshall Kennou. He eluded a posse which pursued him until weakness caused him to give up, two miles from the village.

THE PRESIDENT IN SOUTHLAND GETS GLAD HAND

Savannah, Ga., May 2.—President Taft was entertained by the Hibernian society of this city at the centennial anniversary of the organization of the society.

Mr. Taft was greeted with genuine southern hospitality upon his arrival here. He was met at the station by Governor Brown of Georgia and was escorted by a troop of mounted police to the home of General W. W. Gordon, whose guest Mr. Taft was during his stay here.

Upon the conclusion of the banquet, the president motored to the Georgia Central station and boarded his private car, Colonial, which left for Augusta. Mr. Taft will attend a memorial service there today for the late Major Archibald W. Butt.

OHIO HAPPENINGS

Must Cease Alleged Graft.
Columbus, O., May 2.—The state utilities commission issued an order to the Middletown Gas and Electric company, commanding it to omit the enforcement of a rule by which, before they will set a meter on a service and turn on the electric current, the owner of the building must get a certificate of inspection from the "state inspection bureau." The board holds that it is a species of graft in the interest of the inspection bureau, which is an agency maintained by fire insurance companies doing business in the state.

To Have Anti-Vaccination School.
Dayton, O., May 2.—Plans for opening the proposed independent school for unvaccinated children are being pushed by the committee named at an anti-vaccination indignation meeting. Recognizing that the board of health and school board are acting under their powers in forcing the attendance at school of the unvaccinated, the anti-vaxers are determined to open one of their own schools.

Drops Baby in Coal Car.
Chicago, Ill., May 2.—Freight Conductor L. G. Meyer while going over his train between Homer and Nova, discovered an 11-pound baby girl which had been thrown into a gondola car. Probably it had been dropped into the car from an overhead bridge. The baby was undoubtedly killed by the fall, as the body was warm when picked up by the conductor.

Lorain Tailors Happy.
Lorain, O., May 2.—Unskilled labor employed by the city has won its fight for an eight-hour workday, and the workmen will receive the same compensation for eight hours labor under the new plan as they formerly received for 10 hours' work.

Starts on Maryland Jaunt.
Columbus, O., May 2.—Governor Harmon left for Baltimore, where today he will begin a three-day campaign through Maryland. He was enthusiastic about his trip to Texas and spoke as if happy over the prospects there.

Salesman Inhales Gas.
Cincinnati, O., May 2.—When the body of Joseph Loeb, 28, whisky salesman, was found after he had ended his life by sucking gas through a tube, a magazine which contained two stories in which the principals had committed suicide was near by.

Jumps Train; Fatally Injured.
Upper Sandusky, O., May 2.—Glen Unger, 37, tried to leap aboard a moving Big Four train at Berwick and fell under the wheels, receiving injuries that resulted in his death.

River Gives Up Its Dead.
East Liverpool, O., May 2.—The body of Hugh Shroul, 18, the fourth and last victim of the Ohio river drowning at Port Homer three weeks ago, was found at Calumet, O.

Train Hits Fostoria Lad.
Fostoria, O., May 2.—Harry Riley, 10, was run down by the Baltimore & Ohio switch engine while going to school. A foot was crushed off.
